When does a student receive a refocus?

When a child is asked to refocus, he/she will be asked to visit the "Refocus Chair" in the classroom. There, the student will be seated in a quiet area and asked to think about the inappropriate behavior. The teacher will then visit quietly with the student WITHIN 10 MINUTES of refocus time and discuss the behavior and what changes will need to be made.

South Elementary Classroom Behavior Procedure

1. Verbal/nonverbal warning

- a. Verbal warning explained to student. Use this time to reteach the appropriate behavior.

2. Refocus

- a. Student to refocus if the behavior continues. Use this time to reteach the appropriate behavior.

3. Minor Ticket

- a. Student is given 2nd refocus (teacher's choice to use the buddy room) and a minor ticket is given. This results in student missing Blitz Day. Parents notified and ticket sent home.

4. Pink Refocus

- a. If student behavior continues and they refocus for a 3rd refocus (teacher's choice to use the buddy room), the pink refocus form will be filled out with the teacher. Parents will be notified and the form sent home for a parent/guardian signature. Student loses a privilege.

5. Office Referral

- a. If the behavior continues, student needs to be refocused (4th refocus). Teacher fills out the ODR on infinite campus & the principal takes further action.
- b. ODR's filled out immediately following a critical infraction.

Minor Behaviors

These infractions will be addressed by the teacher and/or paraprofessional.

Not following the behaviors listed in the 3 Be's of Student Behaviors table will result in the following consequences:

Consequences for Minor Behaviors

1. Verbal/Non-Verbal Reminder. Use this time to reteach the behavior
2. Refocus if the behavior continues. Use this time to reteach the appropriate behavior.
3. If behavior continues, and the student is refocused for the 2nd time, a minor ticket is given. Parent needs to be notified and the student misses the Blitz Day.
4. If behavior continues, and the student is refocused for the 3rd time, a pink refocus needs to be filled out. This results in a missed privilege. The pink refocus form needs to be sent home and signed by the parent.

*If the student receives 3 minor slips for the same behavior within a Blitz Day period, a problem solving form will be filled out and the MBI team will meet to discuss interventions. If the behavior continues, an Office referral will be issued.
